The Silent Sea

by Clint Slate & Iona James

On their first EP together, French artist Clint Slate and Scotland's Iona James have created an alchemic journey of memorable melody, swirling harmonies, and rich, resonant guitar tones.

Singing alone and together, the duo's emotionally evocative vocal delivery is conveyed upon an alluring textural soundscape that is at times both ambient and majestic.

With lyrics that tiptoe thoughtfully through heartfelt pathways of inevitability, faith and remembrances of lost love, this is music that will echo in your mind, stir your soul and capture your heart.
