

"I Believe" - A Band Called Paul

A Band Called Paul takes the "Imagine," concept and melds it with an 80's reggae mix that wouldn't sound out of place on a Police record from that era.

A bouncy pulse along with background vocals propels the song.

"I Believe" lists many of the major troubles in the world and with faith in humanity that we can get through it all.

A synth (?) solo adds the cherry on the top.

Nicely done!
